

Profile of the Arsla Salim, Senior Course Commander, NPA

Ms. Arsla Salim of the Police Service of Pakistan (PSP) belongs to the 40th Common Training Program (CTP) of the Central Superior Services (CSS). She is currently holding the position of Director, Senior Command Course at the National Police Academy. She holds an M.Phil degree in Biochemistry from Quaid-e-Azam University, Islamabad.

Ms. Salim started her career with Islamabad Capital Territory Police where she had an opportunity to work in both rural and urban parts of the capital. She has also held different positions at the Intelligence Bureau.

In recent years, Ms. Arsla Salim has served with Balochistan Police from 2021 to 2023. She worked at positions in Quetta, and in the Counter-Terrorism Department (CTD). In particular, she was able to make a significant impact as regards to gender sensitization and inclusion and also spearheaded the special initiative of increasing the number of women in police in the province.