

Profile of the Jawad Ishaq, Assistant Course Commander, NPA

Muhammad Jawad Ishaq, PSP, is a dedicated police officer with over seven years of distinguished service in the Police Service of Pakistan. He is currently serving as Assistant Course Commander / Director (IST) at the National Police Academy, where he leads the 2nd Specialized Training Course for Deputy Superintendents of Police, Sindh. In addition, he coordinates with the Mid-Career Management Course and Initial Command Course, playing a vital role in mentoring Assistant Superintendents of Police and shaping the future leadership of Pakistan's policing system.

He holds a Bachelor of Engineering degree from NUST, Islamabad. Throughout his career, he has held key leadership positions, including AIG Operations KP, SSP Operations in the Counter Terrorism Department KP, DPO Lakki Marwat, Divisional SP in Saddar Kohat and Warsak Peshawar, and SP Investigation Sialkot. His extensive experience spans counterterrorism, intelligence, district policing, and operational command. He has a proven track record in managing high-risk cases and navigating complex security challenges. His career is marked by a steadfast commitment to justice, institutional reform, and professional excellence.